BOSTON, February 12.

HIS Excellency our Governor having from Time to Time laid before the several Assemblies of this Province, the Deficiencies of their Grants for his Support, the following MESSAGES may show in what Situation the Affair of His Excellency's Arrears due from the Province stands at this Day.

A Message from His Excellency the Governor by Mr. Deputy Secretary, viz.

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives,

I SHOULD have gladly avoided repeating the great Hardship I lie under from the constant Deficiencies in the Sums that have been granted for my Support; but my Case being so evidently reasonable and just, I cannot omit referring you to what I laid before you in June last, there being no material Alteration than that instead of l. 2400 then, the Sum grown in Arrear to this Time is upwards of l. 2900 in Bills of the new Tenor.

I observe by your Journals on the Consideration of the Message I mention, that you declin'd making me a Grant on Account of my Arrear at that Time.

You will therefore now deliberate upon the Matter, aud do therein so as to prevent my making any further Application to you on this Head. J. BELCHER.

January 24th, 1738,9.

A Message from His Excellency the Governor by Mr. Secretary Willard, in the Words following, viz.

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives,

'CONformable to a Resolution passed at the Session of the General Court in September 1730, my Support has been one of the first Things provided for at the Anniversary Session in May; it is now the third Week of this Session, and nothing concluded on in this Matter, which obliges me to remind you of it.

'And I take this Occasion to move you to consider what I have so often said on the Article of my Arrears. Altho' some small Grants have been made me on this Account, yet the Province is truly indebted to me at this Day at least l. 2400 in Bills of the new Tenour; and to convince you of this, I must carry you back to the Transactions of the Assemblies in the late Governor Shute's Time, and so on, to my Arrival to the Government.

'The last Grant made to that Gentleman for his Support in the Government, was after the rate of l. 1000 a Year in your Bills of Credit. When Governor Burnet came into the Government, he brought and communicated to the Assembly His present Majesty's Instruction for settling upon him l. 1000 Sterling a Year, and altho' the Assembly did not comply with making it a perpetual Salary, yet they came up to the Sum, viz. Three Thousand Pounds in Bills of Credit, which was then equal to l. 1000 Sterling, and must be so design'd; or why should the Assembly go at once from l. 1000 granted to Governor Shute, to l. 3000 to Governor Burnet? This plainly proves, that the Assembly intended to make Governor Burnet's Support l. 1000 Sterling a Year.

'When I took on me the Government, the Exchange was alter'd by the sinking of the Bills of Credit, yet the Grant for my Support was confin'd to the same Sum in those Bills, which was an Injustice I have been complaining of to every Assembly, even to this Time; altho' in the Address of the House of Representatives to the King, of April 22d 1731, they say,--- "Your "Majesty's most dutiful Subjects humbly implore your "Majesty's Favour and Compassion, that the Govern- "ment here may be permitted to go on in a way that "is practicable, in paying what they are in Arrears, "and to Support your Majesty's Governor suitable to the "Dignity of your Majesty's Commission, and in order "thereunto most humbly beg, that your Majesty would "be graciously pleased to grant your Royal Order of "Leave to your present Governor to accept of what "has been, or may be offer'd him from Time to Time "for his ample and honourable Support, when he shall "deem it to be so." 'And the 18th of June following the Council and Representatives in their Address to the King are still more particular in their Engagements to His Majesty for the Support of His Governor, saying---- "As our Hearts and Affections "are strongly engag'd to your Majesty, by the repeated "Instances of your paternal Care and Tenderness to- "wards us; so particularly by your Majesty's distinguish- "ing Goodness to this Province in the Appointment of "your Majesty's present Governor." And again, "We would therefore most humbly intreat your Ma- "jesty to grant your Royal Order of Leave, that your "Governor may receive the Sum that has been granted "and such further Sums as may be granted for his "honourable Support, suitable to the Dignity of his Sta- "tion, when he shall judge it to be so; which we doubt "not this and all succeeding Assemblies will readily "come into, and should they not, we acknowledge "your Majesty will have just Reason to shew your "Displeasure." 'As

'As I have before obſerv'd to you, the firſt Grant you 'made of l. 3000 for the Support of the King's Gover- 'nor, was worth at that Day l. 1000 Sterling, now its 'worth no more than l. 600 a Year; and it cannot be 'ſuppos'd, that the King's Governor can live ſuitable 'to the Dignity of his Station, with the ſmall Pittance 'of l. 600 Sterling a Year, and that it muſt be far from 'an ample and honourable Support; and my conſtant Com- 'plaints on this Head demonſtrate, that I have never deem- 'ed it to be ſo. And I muſt ſay to you, as I have once and 'again to former Aſſemblies, that the annual Grants 'made me, have fallen far ſhort of the Expence of my 'Family: To what purpoſe then have been the repeated 'ſolemn Aſſurances given by the Aſſemblies to his Ma- 'jeſty, while I am thus oblig'd to live a great Part of my 'Time (in the Management of the Affairs of the Pro- 'vince) on my own Fortune.

'The Aſſemblies have once and again repreſented to 'his Majeſty the great Dependence they have on the 'Governor, and in their Addreſs of 18th June 1731, 'they ſay, "And we beg leave to obſerve, that the "Council and Repreſentatives have a great Dependance "on the Governor in many Particulars nearly affect- "ing their Intereſt, and that the Governor is under "little or no Inducement, as to Intereſt, to cultivate a "good Underſtanding with them, more eſpecially "the Repreſentatives, except that of their granting his "Support." 'This laſt Article of paying the Gover- 'nor ſeems to be thought a Priviledge, and in the ſame 'Addreſs call'd ſo great an one, as that to be depriv'd "of it, it's ſaid, would in a great Meaſure alter, if not "ſubvert our happy Conſtitution."

'The Maſſachuſets-Bay is the largeſt in Eſtate and 'People of any of his Majeſty's American Plantations, 'and yet New-York, ſo much inferiour in Extent of 'Country, Trade, and People, pay their Governor 'l. 1200 a Year. I mention this, that you may'nt 'imagine l. 1000 Sterling, a very ample and honourable 'Support to be given by the Maſſachuſets-Bay to their 'Governor.

'The laſt Houſe of Repreſentatives, after Conſidera- 'tion of a Meſſage I made them on the Head of what 'I now mention to you, directed a Committee to wait 'on the Governor, in order to the better Information 'of the Houſe, who reported---- "That his Excellency "is pleas'd to found his Demand of l. 2400 in Bills of "the new Tenor, on a Suppoſition, that the Province "ought to have made the Governor's annual Support "equal to l. 1000 Sterling, and if ſo, we are of Opinion "that his Excellency's Computation is juſt, and that "the ſeveral Grants of Money made him are ſo much "ſhort of what the ſaid annual Sum would have a- "mounted to until May next.

'Upon your comparing the Arguments I have now 'laid before you, with the Report of the Committee 'juſt now recited, I can't ſuppoſe but you muſt con- 'clude, after deliberately conſidering this Matter, that 'there remains ſtill due to me the Sum beforemention- 'ed, and that you will now make good what former 'Aſſemblies have ſtipulated with the Crown reſpecting 'the Support of his Majeſty's Governor.

June 14th 1738. J. BELCHER.

In the Houſe of Repreſentatives, January 26. 1738.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

THE late Governor Burnet, in his Speech to the Council and the Houſe of Repreſentatives, upon his Acceſſion to this Government, on the 24th of July 1728, laid before them his Majeſty's Inſtruction for ſettling his Salary at One Thouſand Pounds Sterling a Year.

The Houſe not only declined to fix his Salary accord- ingly, but imploy'd their Agents at Home, to defend their Rights againſt that Demand.

On the 25th of April 1729, their Agents write them, 'That upon the Hearing, it ſeem'd to be a Point 'reſted in on all Sides, that the People have certainly 'the Power of raiſing the Governor's Support, and of 'fixing or not fixing it, as they they judge moſt for his 'Majeſty's Service, and the Welfare of the People. 'We can by no Means think it prudent, juſt or reaſona- 'ble, but an Infringement of the Rights veſted in the 'People by the Royal CHARTER, to fix a Salary on 'a Governor by Virtue of an Inſtruction. If our Li- 'berties muſt be loſt, it's much better they ſhould be 'taken away, than we be in any Meaſure acceſſary to 'our own Ruin.

And in their Letter of the 24th of October 1729, (which adviſeth that they had the News of the Death of Governor Burnet) inſiſt to the ſame Effect.

Your Excellency in your Speech to the Council and Houſe of Repreſentatives, on the 9th of September 1730, communicated to them his Majeſty's Inſtruction, to fix the Governor's Salary at One Thouſand Pounds Sterling a Year, and hoped that after all the paſt Struggles and Controverſies, they would think it for the true Intereſt of the Province to do in this Matter what may be per- fectly acceptable to his Majeſty.

The Houſe of Repreſentatives afterwards on the 22d of April 1731, made their humble Addreſs to his Ma- jeſty, declaring themſelves 'under great Concern that 'they are not able in faithfulneſs to the Rights of this 'People to comply with this Inſtruction, for that the Frame 'and Conſtitution of this Government would thereby be 'very much altered, if not ſubverted; there would be no 'Ballance of Power in the ſeveral Branches of the Legiſ- 'lature, the Houſe of Repreſentatives would depend on 'the Governor for many Things of the greateſt Conſequence 'to them and the Intereſt and Safety of the People they re- 'preſent, while no Obligation in thoſe Points will lye on 'their Governor. This notwithſtanding, your Majeſty's 'loyal Subjects are willing and deſirous to grant from Time 'to Time, an ample and honourable Support to your Ma- 'jeſty's Governors, ſuitable to the Dignity of their Sta- 'tion; and accordingly, ſoon after his Excellency's Arrival 'made him a Grant of Three Thouſand Pounds. And 'moſt humbly beg that your Majeſty would be graciouſly 'pleaſed to grant your Royal Order of Leave to your pre- 'ſent Governor to accept of what has been or may be offered 'him from Time to Time, for his ample and honourable 'Support, when he ſhall deem it to be ſo.

And on the 18th of June following, the Council and Houſe of Repreſentatives, addreſs'd his Majeſty to the ſame Effect, adding withal, 'that they doubt not but all 'ſucceeding Aſſemblies, from Time to Time, will grant him 'an ample and honourable Support,---and if not, his Ma- 'jeſty will have juſt Reaſon to ſhew his Diſpleaſure.

Since theſe Addreſſes to his Majeſty, the ſeveral Aſſem- blies have granted to your Excellency from Time to Time, ſuch Sums of Money as they thought to be an ample and honourable Support ſuitable to the Dignity of your Station; and your Excellency, deeming them to be ſo, accordingly from Time to Time received them.

This being truly the Caſe;---- if, as your Excellency has been pleaſed to obſerve, you did not really deem theſe Sums to be an ample and honourable Support, notwith- ſtanding your conceding to it by the Act of receiving them purſuant to the Acts, Addreſſes and Grants of the Aſſemblies aforementioned, yet 'tis impoſſible this Pro- vince ſhould be one Farthing indebted to your Excellency, or that any Sum whatſoever can be demanded of them under the Name of Arrears: Becauſe, inſtead of fixing any Salary, they conteſted it during Governor Burnet's Life, and until Leave was obtain'd for your Excellency to receive ſuch Sums of Money, as the Aſſembly in their uſual Manner ſhould grant for your honourable Support, his Majeſty's Prohibition to you before that Time not- withſtanding.

As

As to advancing the Salary at once, from One Thouſand Pounds given to Governor Shute, to Three Thouſand Pounds given to Governor Burnet,----Whether it was done by Surprize, or to ſoften Governor Burnet's Temper in the Debate of that Time, that extraordinary Advance is an irreſiſtible Reaſon it ſhould never be urged as an Example, but where any Aſſembly ſhall ſee ſpecial Reaſons to do the ſame Thing, or the ſufficient and honourable Support of the Governor ſhall neceſſarily require it.

We therefore intreat your Excellency no more to inſiſt upon any certain Duty, Debt, or Arrears, due from this Province; which we apprehend there is not ſufficient Reaſon for, and may tend to revive that antient Debate, ſo injurious to his Majeſty's Subjects here, and their known and natural Rights, which they have always been adviſed never to give up.

And yet we beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that his Majeſty's good Subjects of this Province, are not only ſo hearty in their Purpoſes of making a ſufficient and honourable Proviſion for the Support of the Governor, but are ſo ſincerely affected for your Excellency's perſonal Welfare, that they will make full and ample Proviſion for the Governor, according to your Station and their Ability, and earneſtly contend with your Excellency which ſhall exceed in the Expreſſions of their mutual Affections.

LONDON, December 6.

THEY write from the Hague, that as Affairs in the Neighbourhood of the United Provinces are look'd upon to be in an unſtable and uncertain Way, and very liable to Viciſſitude and Alteration, the States-General have thought it neceſſary, let what will happen, to take proper Meaſures for the Security of their Country, having given Orders requiſite for repairing and augmenting the Fortifications of their principal Barrier Places. They have likewiſe form'd a Project for repairing the Works of many other Places, which will be put in Execution as ſoon as the Funds for that Purpoſe ſhall be ſufficient for defraying the Expence

DUBLIN, Novemb. 21. Laſt Sunday Lucius Macnamara, a Popiſh Prieſt (and as ſome ſay, titular Biſhop of Limerick) read his Recantation in St. John's Church. And doubtleſs he may be as ſincere as ſome of his Brethren have prov'd before him.

Yeſterday it was obſerv'd, that the Tide flow'd and ebb'd four Times from three a Clock in the Morning to three in the Afternoon, in this River and Harbour, a Thing never ſeen in the Memory of Man before.

DORCHESTER, in New-England Feb. 26.

Laſt Night between Nine and Ten o'Clock, we had as terrible a Storm of Thunder and Lightning, as perhaps was ever known; it broke in ſeveral Places; in particular, upon the Dwelling Houſe of Mr. Nathaniel Langley, who with his Wife, were ſitting by the Fire, about three Foot diſtance one from the other; it ſtruck the North-Weſt Part of the Top of the Chimney, and broke down ſeveral Bricks: It likewiſe enter'd the South-Eaſt Part of the Chimney, where it lighted on the Head of a Principal of the Roof, and ſplit it down to the Foot; and paſſing through one Corner of the Plate, it ſtruck into a Poſt; it likewiſe broke out at five or ſix Places at the Weſt End of the Houſe; the Violence of the Stoke threw Mrs. Langley near ſeven Foot diſtance from where ſhe was ſitting, where ſhe was taken up for Dead in all Appearance; but came to in ſome Meaſure in about an Hour's time, but thought her Legs and Back had been broke for ſome Time. A Maid likewiſe in the ſame Room about 15 Foot diſtant from Mrs. Langely, was ſtruck down, but ſoon recovered. Mr. Langley received no other Hurt but the ſcorching one of his Legs, altho' near in a direct Line between the two Perſons ſtruck down. Mr. Heyman likewiſe and his Wife, were ſitting in their Houſe near the Fire Place, and there came down the Chimney, to their appearance, a Ball of Fire of conſiderable Bigneſs, with a terrible Noiſe, but with no perceivable Effect but their Surpriſe. It is farther obſervable, that as Mr. Heyman's Houſe is about ſixty Rods due South from Mr. Langley's, ſo about three Quarters of a Mile due South from Mr. Heyman's there was a large Oak Tree ſtruck in a ſurpriſing Manner the ſame Night.

BOSTON, March 5. There never was known in theſe Parts, in the Memory of the oldeſt Perſons among us, ſuch a violent Storm of Thunder and Lightning of ſo long Continuance, or more extenſive, at this Time of the Year; it being very extream, as we have heard, even as far as New-Hampſhire, Connecticut, &c.

PHILADELPHIA.

We hear that Tueſday Night laſt, a young Dutchman was married to an old Dutchwoman, who was known to have Money. They had a Fiddle at the Wedding, and when the Bride was about to dance, the Bridegroom told her he was oblig'd to go out a little Way and would return in a ſhort Time. She danc'd 'till it was late, and then he not appearing, ſhe went to look for him in the Bed-Chamber; where ſhe found to her great Surprize that he had been and taken away her Money, and he has not ſince been heard of.
